Dear Mr. Morisy:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act request dated May 6, 2013 for a copy of all responses sent to Congressional committees between January 1, 2008 and the date that this request was processed. Your request was received on May 6, 2013 and assigned control number FA-13-0021.

Headquarters, U.S. Army Forces Command conducted a thorough search for records responsive to your request, however, no records were located; therefore, we must provide you a "No Records" response.

This letter does not constitute a denial but rather a "No Records" determination of your request. A "No Records" response must be provided by the Initial Denial Authority under the provisions of Title 5, United States Code 552.

You have the right to appeal a "No Records" response. Your appeal must be received within 60-days of the date of the initial denial letter by the Assistant General Counsel. Address your appeal to the following office:

The Secretary of the Army
Office of the General Counsel
104 Army Pentagon, Room 3C546
Washington, DC 20310-0104

Your appeal may be sent by email to FOIAAppeals@doc.gov or by facsimile (fax) to (202) 482-2552. Your appeal must include a copy of the original request, the response to your request, a statement of the reason the withheld records should be made available, and why the denial of the records was in error. Also the appeal letter, the envelope, the email subject line, and/or the fax cover sheet should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

The email, fax machine, and Office of the General Counsel mailbox are monitored only on working days during the normal business hours (8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, Monday through Friday). Appeals posted to the email box, fax machine or delivered to the Office of the General Counsel after business hours will be deemed received on the next normal business day.

If you choose not to appeal, but have any questions about the way your request was handled, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Ms. Christine A. Harris, FOIA Officer, at christine.a.harris.civ@army.mil, (910) 570-5613. Please reference case number FA-13-0021 in any communication with our office.
